REVEL COSTA

The image features two overlapping line graphs on a white background. The red graph is the outer boundary, starting at the bottom left, rising to a peak at the top left, and then curving down to the right. The green graph is nested inside the red one, following a similar path but with a slightly lower peak. In the center of the space between the two lines, the words 'FORRO' and 'FRENTE' are stacked vertically in a bold, purple, sans-serif font.
